

GE Healthcare

Developing Clinical Archive Technology to Integrate Regional Health

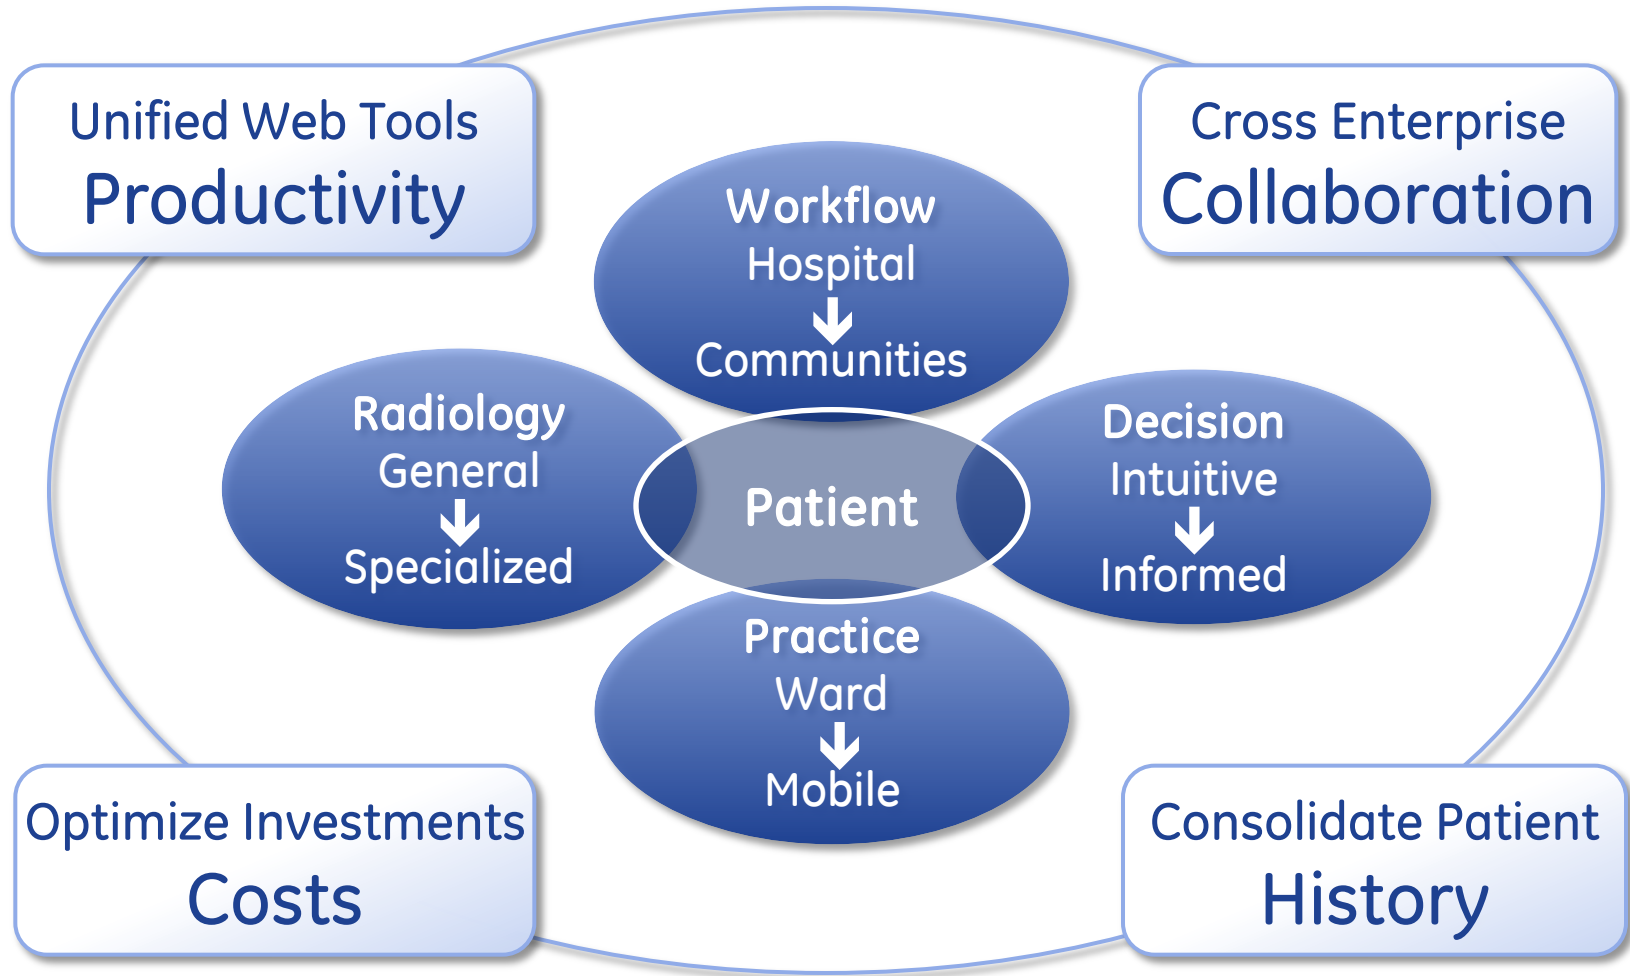

Helen Bager
Sales Manager Nordic
GE Healthcare IT

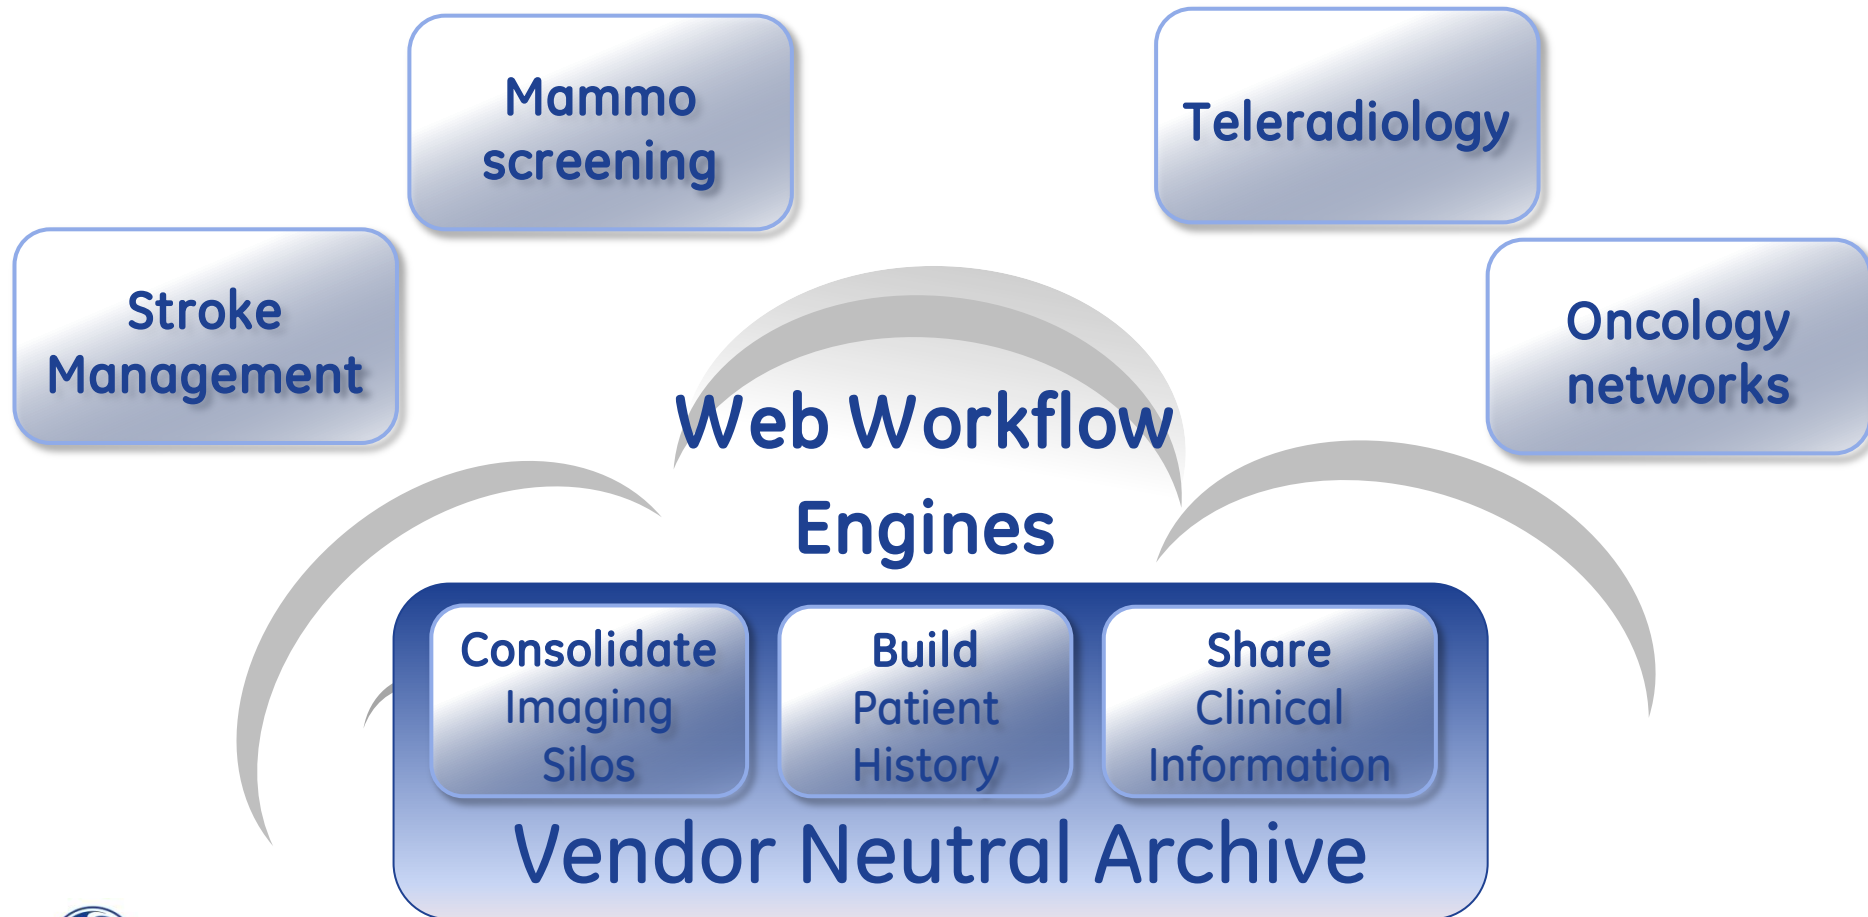

imagination at work

Towards integrated collaborative care

Vendor Neutral Archive – a Foundation for collaborative care

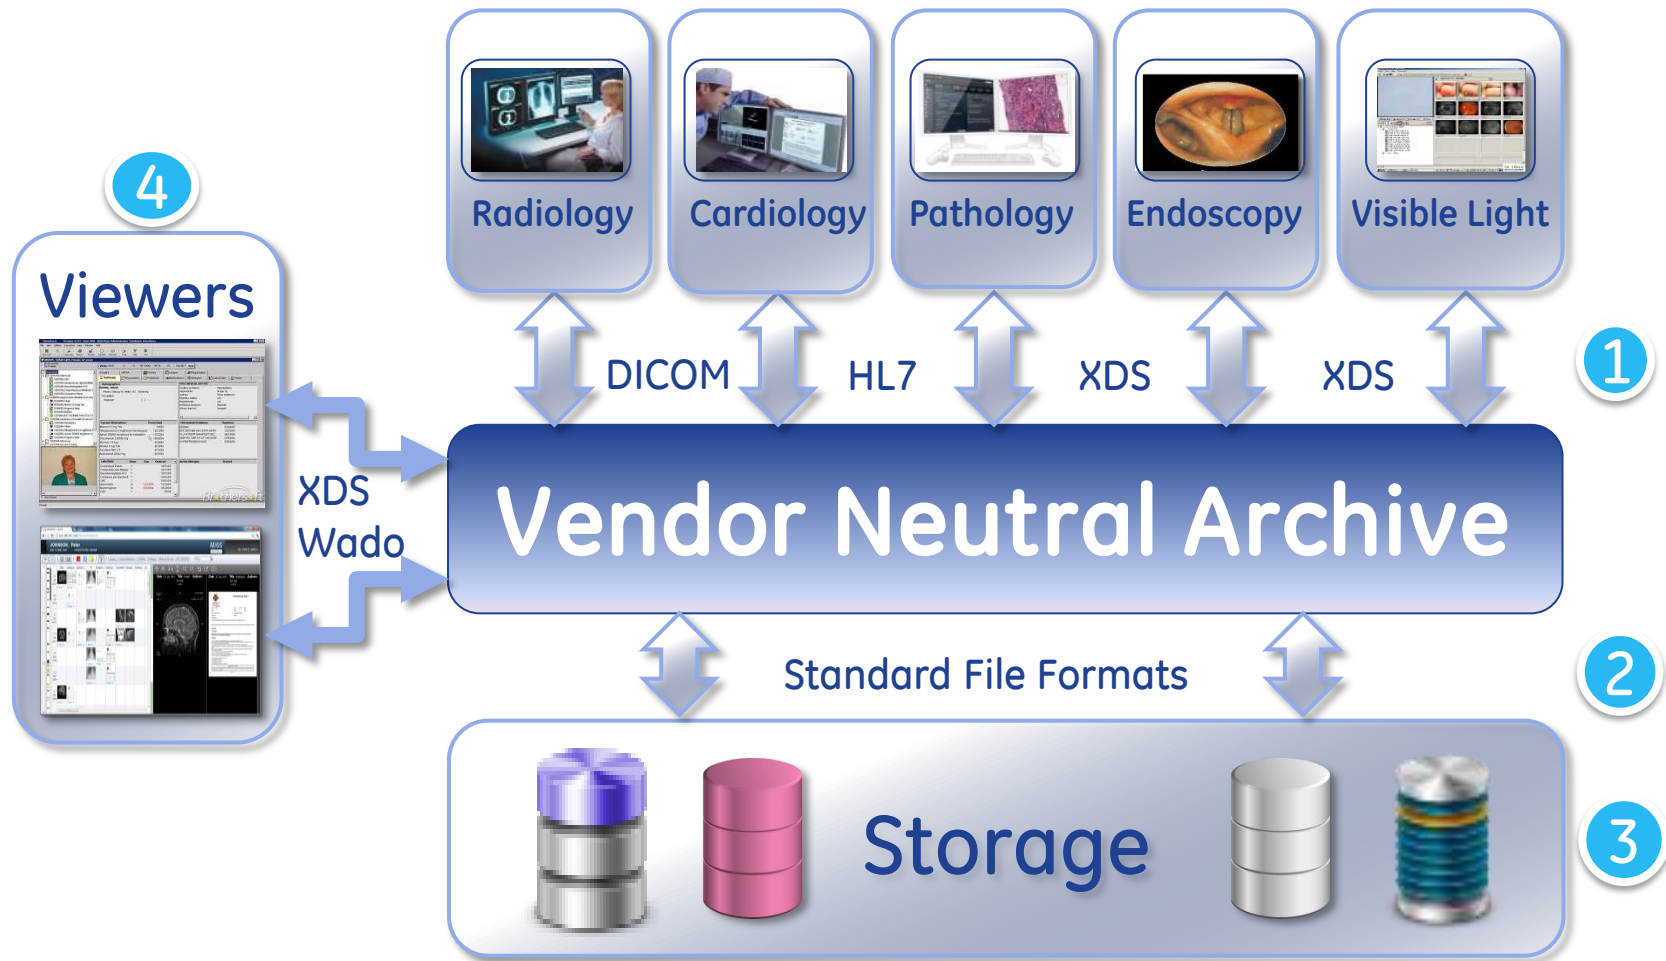

Clarifying the concept

Vendor Neutral ?

Archive ?

Design Principles: Vendor Neutral?

Design Principles: Archive?

Vendor Neutral Archive Value

VNA – Level 4
Regional patient history

VNA – Level 3
Enterprise-wide clinical data consolidation

VNA – Level 2
Enterprise Imaging
consolidation

VNA – Level 1
PACS Independence

Cross-Enterprise Patient Information Repository
Multi-PID (MPI), gateway to image exchange

Enterprise Multi-specialty Archive
Connecting to 'Ologies, Patient registry

Enterprise DICOM Archive
Multi-PACS, cardiology

Departmental Archive
DICOM/HL7 Archive

Vendor Neutral Archive Level 1-4

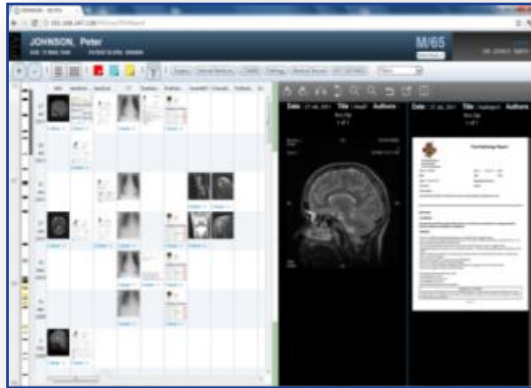

Patient History Access

- Patient data display
- Zero footprint
- Easy to integrate
- XDS enabled

VNA Level 1 to 4

- DICOM & Non DICOM
- Multi sites - eMPI
- Virtual archives, ILM..
- Cloud ready

VNA L1: Southern and NWWM Clusters (UK)

- ~60 million exams – 1PB
- 40% of England : 20M patients, 72 NHS trusts
- Average uptime of 99.98%

VNA L2: Västra Götaland Region (Sweden)

- Sweden 2nd largest region
- 1.5 million residents
- 17 hospitals
- Multivendor RIS/PACS

VNA L3: Antwerp Univ. Hospital (Belgium)

- 600 beds hospitals
- 500 k exams per year
- Multivendor IT systems

VNA L4: NHS Wales (UK)

- 3 Million patients
- Oncology Multivendor IT systems
- Welsh eMPI/RIS

GE's strategic vision

Enabling integrated collaborative care

