E- Public Procurement in Chile:
Stronger Institutions

In 2003 Chile suffered a major Corruption Scandal

A window of opportunity to enhance transparency in public procurement was created

Kingdon (1995)

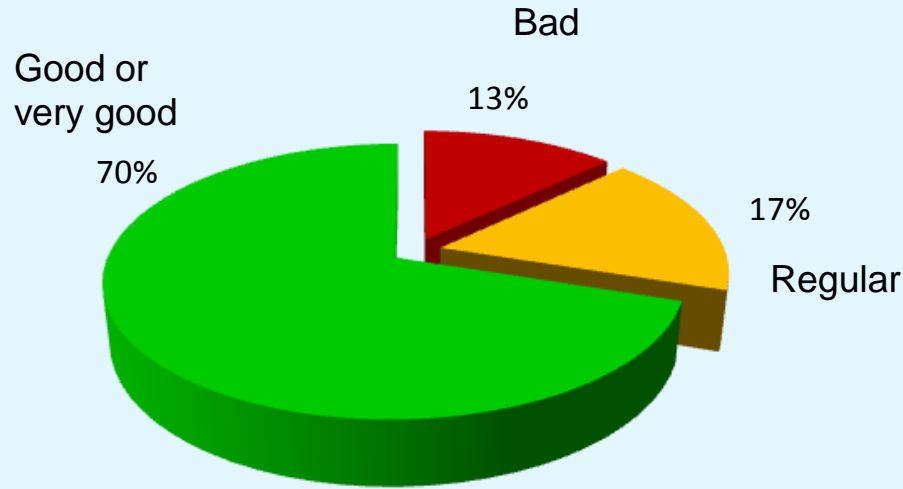

The reform was based on a standard and simple new regulation for the public procurement. Including an web based marketplace for every agency and local government in the country.

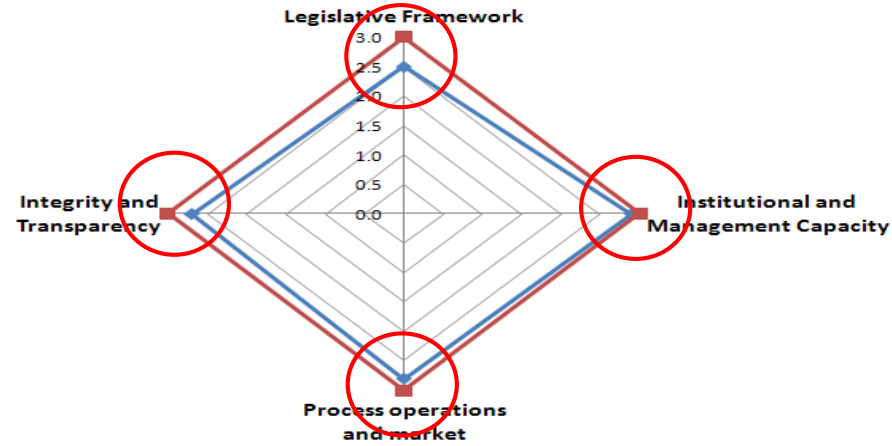

2010

- 95,000 private firms doing business with the government
- 15,000 contracting officers
- 500,000 tender processes per year
- Chile's 3.5% GDP

Outcomes

Leaders' Opinions:
Transparency in the market place

Integrity: CPAR (OCDE)

In 2003
2.9 offers per tender,
nowadays 6.1

Stronger institutions

This year a strong earthquake devastated 20,000 families in the central region of Chile.

The public marketplace has response to a challenge that such catastrophe demand to the public procurement
