

60.000 inhabitants
70.000 jobs

Cyber City

Issy -les-Moulineaux is a medium-size city , near Paris (France)

With 60.000 inhabitants and 70.000 jobs, Issy stands out because of its particularly dynamic economic base. 57% of its companies belong to the Information and Communication Technology sector and include the Wanadoo Group, Cisco Systems, France Télécom R&D and HP

- 60 % of the inhabitants are connected from their homes (national average : 30 %)
- 20 % of its households are high speed line subscribers

57 % IT companies

e-Services

Cyber kindergarten : Parents follow the early-learning games of their children via the website

Schools equipments : 2 computers per class in 2002

14 public places (cultural and administrative equipment, community centres or areas devoted to older people with the Cyber Tearoom) offer free Internet access (a total of 120 computers)

The Cube is the 1st multimedia cultural centre, completely dedicated to the digital art creation

Municipal Call Center : To accelerate the delays of answer to the inhabitants public and free access to the Internet

Cyber Tea Room

Sincere Kourien (Japan)

Elderly people

The « Cyber Tea Room » allows elderly people to get acquainted with the use of Internet and e-mail.

A training programme has been implemented.

A club of « cyber seniors » has been created to allow these elderly « net-surfers » to meet , exchange their virtual experiences and share know-how with others.

e-Democracy

- Since January 1997, Issy's inhabitants can not only watch live the City Council's sessions on TV or online , but can also ask questions to be answered by elected representatives during breaks.
- 5.600 homes cable TV, may access this service on a specific channel
- Web -users can participate through the City website
- 750 inhabitants of Issy are members of the « Citizen Panel », a new tool of e-democracy
- They give their opinion each 3 months

e-Government

- ordering a birth, marriage or death certificate
- Reserve a parking spot in case of relocation
- indicate a change of domestic situation for the school file
- consult the state of its account of school restoration
- reserve a hotel room
- reserve books, discs, DVD to our Media library
- reserve a game or a CD-ROM for our game library
- receive a publication (guides and newspapers) from the city
- reach the considerations of the City Council
- constitute the wedding file

Issy Mobile

The first Wi-Fi access points (Administrative Centre, the City Hall, the Municipal Sports Park and the Stadium restaurant) Our business incubator and Conference Hall are likewise equipped.

The Text portal : you can receive the information you wish directly via SMS. This information can range from weather alerts to news of the latest cultural exhibition.

Paying for parking places by mobile phone!