The legal basis (1/2)

- Article 9A of the Constitution: All persons have the right to be protected from the collection, processing and use, especially by electronic means, of their personal data, as specified by law. The protection of personal data is ensured by an independent authority, which is established and operates as specified by law.
- Article 19 of the Constitution: 1. Secrecy of letters and all other forms of free correspondence or communication shall be absolutely inviolable. The guaranties under which the judicial authority shall not be bound by this secrecy for reasons of national security or for the purpose of investigating especially serious crimes, shall be specified by law. 2. The matters relating to the establishment, operation and powers of the independent authority ensuring the secrecy of paragraph 1 shall be specified by law. 3. Use of evidence acquired in violation of the present article and of articles 9 and 9A is prohibited.

The legal basis (2/2)

- Law 2472/97
 - EU Directive 1995/46
 - Protection of personal data
 - Establishment of Hellenic Authority for the Protection of Personal Data
- Law 3115/03
 - Protection of Information and Communication Security and Privacy
 - Establishment of Hellenic Authority for Information and Communication Security and Privacy
- Law 3471/06

The Hellenic Authority for the Information and Communication Security and Privacy (ADAΕ) (1/2)

- The Hellenic Authority for the Information and Communication Security and Privacy (ADAΕ) has been established under article 1 of the law 3115/2003, following the guidelines set in paragraph 2 of the article 19 of the Greek Constitution, in order to protect the secrecy of mailing, the free correspondence or communication in any possible way as well as the security of networks and information. The concept of privacy encompasses the control of observing and regulating the terms and processes of waiving of privacy protection rights as foreseen by the law.
- The Authority for the Assurance of Information and Communication Privacy and Security is an authority with administrative independency. ADAΕ is based in Athens, but can decide to establish and function offices in other cities of Greece. ADAΕ is responsible to submit its decisions to the Minister of Justice. At the end of every year, all the activities performed and the actions taken by ADAΕ are submitted to the President of the Parliament, the Minister of Justice and the Greek parliament.
- ADAΕ is subject to parliamentary examination, in ways and procedures that follow current parliamentary rules.

The Hellenic Authority for the Information and Communication Security and Privacy (ADAΕ) (2/2)

- Audits (National Security Agency, public and private organizations that provide communication services)
- Hearings
- May confiscate evidence
- Audits the procedures related to lawful interceptions
- Issues recommendations, opinions, regulations

The need for a national strategy

- Increased risks, threats and security breaches
- Proliferation, interconnectivity and interaction of Information and Communication Systems and their use in everyday life
- Increased dependence of society and economy on Information & Communication Systems
- Many stakeholders: The state, the private sector, the citizens
- The nature of the subject matter: conflicting goals, interconnection of practices and measures
