

2017 Global Forum S10: Women in Digital Services Addendum

Additional current successful Women in DS*:

Suggestion	Prominent Role	Reference
Anne Altman	IBM	https://washingtontechnology.com/blogs/editors-notebook/2016/01/ibm-altman-retires.aspx
Teresa Carlson	Amazon / MS	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Teresa_Carlson
Michelle Zatlyn	Toshiba / Cloudflare	http://entrepreneur.wiki/Michelle_Zatlyn
Marissa Mayer	Yahoo	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Marissa_Mayer
Megan Smith	USG CTO / Google	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Megan_Smith
Michelle Thaller	FCC	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Michelle_Fowler
Karen Evans	USG CIO	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Karen_S._Evans
Meg Whitman	HPE	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Meg_Whitman
Sheryl Sandberg	Facebook	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sheryl_Sandberg
Dr. Phyllis Schneck	DHS Cyber	https://www.cyberscoop.com/phyllis-schneck-promontory/
Mary Meeker	USA Inc	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mary_Meeker
Anja Wyden Guelpa	Chancellor of State, Switzerland	https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Anja_Wyden_Guelpa
Janet Yellen	Chair of US Federal Reserve	https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Janet_Yellen

*This list represents a sampling of the active suggestions during the session but is in no way an extensive list, references below on others presented during session.

Examples of ♀ success

Betty Jennings and Frances Bilas
2 of 6 women who programmed the ENIAC

Rear Admiral (Commodore) Grace Hopper
One of the 1st programmers of Harvard Mark I calculator & UNIVAC
Developed the 1st compiler for a computer programming language
Work at CODASYL led to the creation of COBOL

Frances Allen
Pioneer in the field of optimizing compilers
Seminal work in parallelization and code optimization
First female recipient of the Turing Award, 2006

03/10/2017

From "The Women Who Helped Create Computers and The Modern Internet" Forbes
<https://www.forbes.com/pictures/57640c5b4bbe6f038784b647/the-women-who-helped-crea/#52bof81ce3c2>

5

Examples of ♀ success now

- Partner work: Think of an influential women in IT / Digital Services

Laura Weidman Powers
CODE2040 supports young black and Latino engineers working to ensure they are proportionally represented

Reshma Saujani
founded Girls Who Code

Tracy Chou
Engineer and alumna of Pinterest and Quora
Helped create movement for tech to publish diversity data

03/10/2017

From "12 badass women running the tech world" Mashable
<http://mashable.com/2017/03/08/women-in-tech-international-womens-day/#SsxQ9 tLo5qH>

6