ICANN's Mission

To ensure the stable and secure operation of the Internet's unique identifier systems: numbers, names and protocols

Anything connected to the Internet – computers, mobile phones, and other devices – has a unique number called an IP address. IP stands for Internet Protocol

Unique Assignment of Names and Numbers

The ICANN Multistakeholder Community

The community is a volunteer-based, open collection of global stakeholders that work together through a bottom-up process to give advice, make policy recommendations, conduct reviews, and propose implementation solutions for common problems within ICANN's mission and scope

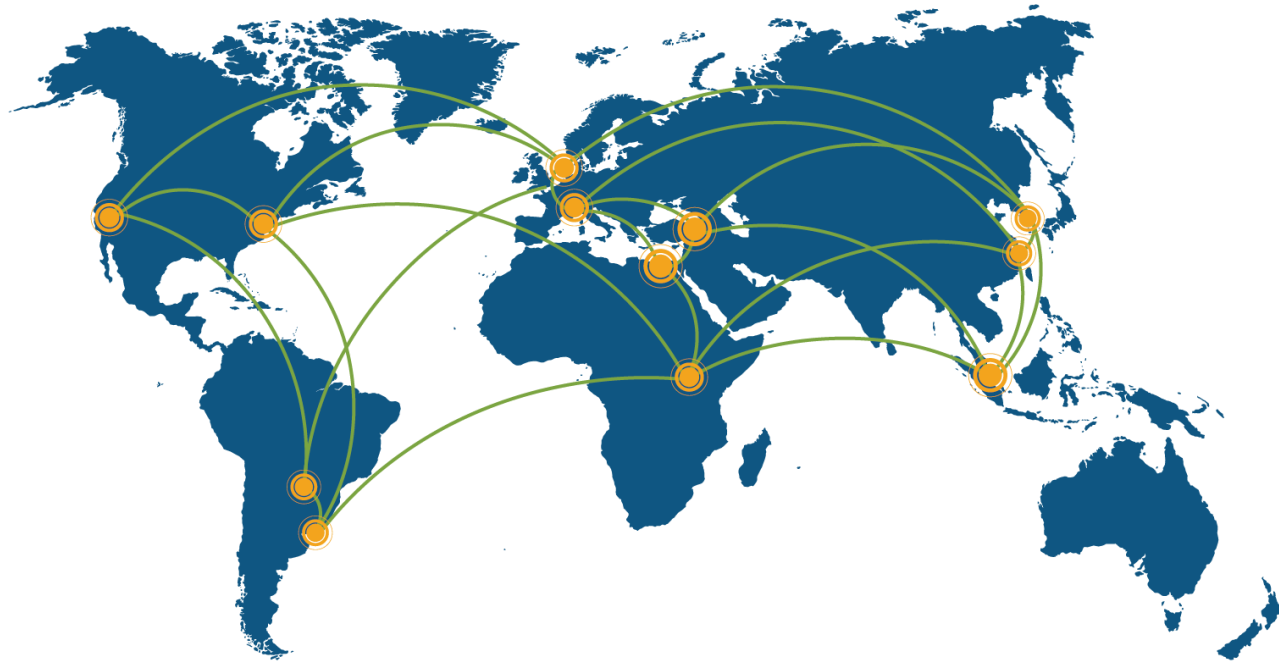

How Does the Multistakeholder Model Work?

The ICANN community – through its Supporting Organizations (SOs) and influenced by its Advisory Committees (ACs) – develops and refines policy recommendations
